Re: United States Securities and Exchange Commission v. Qin, et al.; No. 20-cv-10849
(LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

We are counsel to Robert A. Musiala Jr., Esq., Court-appointed Receiver in the above-referenced matter. We write pursuant to Rule I.B.2 of Your Honor's Individual Rules and Procedures for Civil Cases to respectfully request an extension of time and modification of the schedule for the Court-ordered status letters the Receiver is required to file every 60 days, beginning on January 17, 2022 ("Status Letters").¹ We respectfully request the Receiver instead be permitted to file the Status Letters 15 days after the end of every calendar quarter. This is the Receiver's first request for a modification and an extension of time to file a Status Letter. Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") consents to this request.

As evidenced by the Receiver's status reports to the Court, and in the Receiver's Status Letter filed on January 18, 2022, the Receiver has worked diligently to locate and retrieve assets belonging to the Receivership Estates,² discharge his duties outlined in the Receiver Order, and maximize asset recovery for the benefit of injured investors. The Receiver requests additional Nov. 18, 2021), ECF No. 106 ("The Receiver shall file a status letter by January 17, 2022 and every 60 days thereafter, updating the Court on the status of the matter.").

² Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning afforded to them in the Order Appointing Receiver, United States Securities and Exchange Commission v. Qin, et al., No. 20-cv-10849 (LGS) (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 21, 2021), ECF No. 31 ("Receiver Order").

time to file his Status Letters so he may consistently provide meaningful updates to the Court while still providing the Court with the opportunity to review and assess the Receiver's progress.

Allowing the Receiver to file the Status Letters 15 days after the end of every calendar quarter would provide for an efficient cycle whereby first, at the close of every calendar quarter (i.e., 90 days after the close of the prior calendar quarter) the Receiver would file his quarterly fee application ("Fee Application") for the prior quarter³; then second, 15 days after the close of every quarter the Receiver would file his Status Letter to the Court addressing the recently closed quarter; and then third, 30 days after the close of every quarter the Receiver would file his quarterly status report ("Status Report")⁴ addressing the recently closed quarter. The timeline proposed herein would align the timing of the Status Letters with the filing of the Fee Applications and Status Reports. This will allow the Court to review the Status Letters in the context of the recently filed Fee Applications, which will assist the Court in assessing the appropriateness of the fees sought.

The proposed timeline will also allow the Receiver to take advantage of efficiencies where the Fee Applications, Status Letters, and Status Reports are all prepared close in time with each other. The Receiver will expend fewer resources to compile the information necessary for all three of the reports.

For the above reasons, the Receiver respectfully requests an extension of time to file the Status Letters. We thank Your Honor for consideration of this request.

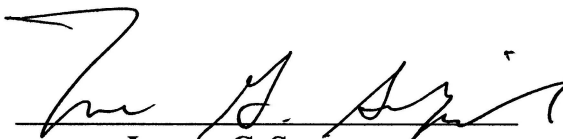

Respectfully submitted,

The request for an extension to file status letters is GRANTED. The Receiver shall file a quarterly status report fifteen (15) days after the close of every quarter. The Receiver is relieved of its obligation to file status reports every sixty (60) days and need not file any additional letter thirty (30) days after the close of every quarter. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to close the motion at Docket No. 143.
